

NEXT STEP QUESTIONS

1. What jumped out at you from the talk about Jesus and Heaven?
2. Read Jesus' words in John 14:6. How would you say this verse in your own words?
3. What do Jesus' words teach us about "good" people who don't know, recognize, or follow Jesus?
4. Read Matthew 25:31-46. What if someone has never heard of Jesus? Do they have a way to Heaven?
5. In what ways does this topic of Jesus and Heaven generate conflict? How do you struggle with in this topic?
6. How does salvation relate to the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20)? What is your role in the Great Commission?

Action Step:

This week, think about someone in your life who needs to hear the good news of salvation through Jesus. Meet with that person, or call that person, and share how Jesus has changed your life—this is good news! Be bold, God has given you everything you need for this moment.

Is Jesus the only way to the top of the mountain?

Four Big Paths to the Top

1. _____
Climbing Technique: Try your best to follow the four Vedas
2. _____
Climbing Technique: Try your best to live by the Eightfold Path
3. _____
Climbing Technique: Try your best to live by the Five Pillars of Islam
4. _____
Climbing Technique: Try your best to keep the laws of the Torah

The difficult climb: You do your best but somewhere along the line even your best efforts are not enough to _____ the mountain.

What Separates these paths from Jesus?

_____ vs _____

All these paths are about doing when Jesus is about what has already been done.

Yes, I (Jesus) am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing.

John 15:5 NLT

Jesus told him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me."

John 14:6 NLT

Bottom Line: If you are tired maybe you have been climbing on your own for too long.. it's time to reconnect with Jesus

It is _____, not _____ that moves mountains

Reflection: Take a moment to reflect on your previous week. Where did you find yourself exhausted? Then look at your upcoming week, how can you connect with Jesus this week to live a full life?

Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

Matthew 11:28 NLT
