Church on the Ridge Certified by National Financial Accountability Organization

SNOQUALMIE, WA – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the certification of Church on the Ridge of Snoqualmie, WA.

ECFA certification is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Church on the Ridge joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 27 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is certified by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to certify a church committed to help people become fully devoted followers of Christ,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 2004, Church on the Ridge’s (www.churchontheridge.org) vision has been to share the love of Jesus with every person in the Snoqualmie valley and help them become fully devoted followers of Christ.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides certification to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance. For more information about ECFA, including information about certification and a listing of ECFA-certified members, visit www.ECFA.org or call 1-800-323-9473.
